Roman Bath Purse Tests Sophomores

Wading Butcher to Meet Klompen, Satin Parasall, Seven Others at Cicero Oval

(By Staff Correspondent)

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, Cicero, Ill., May 6.—The Endurance Handicap No. 3, having failed to attract enough horses through the entry box, the feature race for Wednesday at this course will be a 6-furlong dash known as the Roman Bath. It will be for three-year-olds and will come seventh on a nine-event bill.

Ten sprinters have been named for the Roman Bath, wtih Partlow Farm's Wading Butcher to carry topweight of 117 pounds. A winner here on opening day, Wading Butcher will be handled by jockey Paul Ward. In his inaugural day victory here, Wading Butcher, as an outsider, scored over the well-liked Mangam. In his last start the colt was unplaced at the mile distance.

Among those to finish in front of Wading Butcher in his last essay was Harold Bockman's Klompen, who was running fast at the end to be third. Klompen, with 107 up, will have Dudley Vandenborre as his rider. The race was won by Ray Boy, who set a track record. Mangam was second.

Satin Parasall Carries 112

Grace Kosiba's Satin Parasall will probably come in for some support. This runner has been second twice at the meeting and will carry 112 pounds. Also in with 112 is Harry Hough's More Trouble, who will be benefited by the appearance of leading rider Jack Fieselman in the saddle. Fieselman has a large following here.

Others in the lineup in the event are Mrs. Robert Mitchell's Mr. Preco, to be ridden by Melvin Duhon. William S. Harding's Solero's Boy, who also has Fieselman listed as the jockey; Woodview Farm's Proud Uncle, with Leonard Richardson up; Anthony Graffagnini's Burdetta, to be handled by apprentice Robert Nono; Earl K. Carey's Fair Journey, with Job Dean Jessop aboard; and Daddy's Doe, owned by the estate of F. O. Akin and to be piloted by John Sellers.

Tempted in Black Eyed Susan

PIMLICO, Baltimore, Md., May 6.—Tempted, owned by the Moorings Stable, will be a starter in the $20,000 added Black Eyed Susan Stakes on Wednesday, May 14, trainer Henry S. Clark said today. The chestnut miss, by Half Crown, was third behind stablemate Staysail in her seasonal bow Monday.

Bloodlines

Kentucky Derby Result Glorious Vindication of U. S. Bloodlines

By LEON RASMUSSEN

As far as breeding is concerned, the result of the Kentucky Derby was not only a triumph for "breeding the best to the best," but it was a glorious vindication of American bloodlines which have been pretty well snowed under by asterisks in recent years. Tom Fool must surely be credited with being one of the finest horses produced in this country in the past quarter century. Not only was this son of Menow talented enough to win the 7-furlong Carter Handicap under 135 pounds while giving the best sprinters chunks of weight, he was stout enough, versatile enough and courageous enough to pick up 136 pounds and win the 10-furlong Brooklyn Handicap from what rivals were left after he had previously discouraged them with his superiority in the Suburban at the same distance. This takes some doing, and his performances—especially in these effete days of 130-pound ceilings—stand out like a tall Texan at a ladies aid tea party. Tom Fool was a race horse who left the track without leaving any questions to be asked as far as his ability to carry top weight over 10 furlongs was concerned. He left a point of evaluation for which others seem reluctant to aspire. When other top horses refuse to pick up the gauntlet, it can only be assumed their owners realize they are not Tom Fools.

Tom Fool Also Sire of Jester

There is great satisfaction to see Tom Fool succeeding as a sire, for once again the efficacy of the race track tests prevails. From his first crop of nine American foals, Tom Fool has now sired the winner of the Belmont Futurity in Jester and the Derby winner in Tim Tam. It couldn't happen to a finer, more sensible horse. And we told him so the other day out at Greentree Farm on the Paris Road, outside of Lexington. A pleasant, delightful and very gracious stallion, he acknowledged the compliment by coming up and permitting us to stroke his nose. Right in the middle of the breeding season he was as docile as a kitten. This horse inspired the greatest admiration as a performer and he continues to inspire such admiration as a sire and as a personality.

In Two Lea, Tim Tam has a dam whose quality as a race mare almost equals that of Tom Fool as a race horse. A champion in both her three- and four-year-old seasons, Two Lea, despite always having a "patch" on her, whipped the males at their own game and still owns the fastest 10-furlongs ever turned in by a mare, 2:00⅕, in the Hollywood Gold Cup of 1952 when she was six years of age. Like Tom Fool, Two Lea is and always was a delightful horse to be around. Sensible and agreeable and willing to learn, she accepted racing and she liked it and she invariably gave her best. However, she didn't let it throw her by becoming mean or obstreperous. She was always a joy to handle and if her ankles had been as good as Tom Fool's were, it is difficult to visualize

Stewards' Rulings

TURF PARADISE, Phoenix, Ariz., May 6.—The board of stewards issued the following rulings:

"Exercise boy John Baxter Ford is hereby suspended the balance of the meet for conduct detrimental to the best interest of racing, and his case referred to the Arizona Racing Commission.

"Jockey Hugo Edward Dittfach is hereby suspended for five calendar days for striking jockey Eddie Burns with his whip during the running of the eighth race Sunday, April 27. Jockey Dittfach will be eligible to accept mounts for Saturday, May 3.

"Jockey Ernest Supiran is hereby suspended five calendar days for not maintaining a straight course during the stretch run in the ninth race Wednesday, April 30."

AGUA CALIENTE, Tijuana, B. C., Mexico, May 6.—The board of stewards issued the following ruling:

"For gross carelessness while astride his mount Marbusha in the fifth race May 2, 1958, apprentice Jose Laguna is suspended 15 days, May 6 to 20, inclusive."

Accomplish, Royal Anthem Under 122

Nimmer, Manahplay, Both Maidens, Complete Field for $15,000 Sprint at Jamaica

By DON FAIR

JAMAICA, L. I., N. Y., May 6.—The $15,000 Youthful Stakes, 5 furlongs for two-year-old colts and geldings, will have its 45th renewal here Wednesday and only four colts from the original group of 52 nominees are entered in the dash. The reason for the small field is the coughing epidemic that has raged unchecked at the New York tracks this spring and seriously hampered the training of juveniles.

Reginald N. Webster's Royal Anthem and Leo Edwards' Accomplish each will go to the post in the mid-week stakes under 122 pounds while Cockfield Stable's Nimmer and Foxcatcher Farm's Manahplay, a pair of maidens, get in with 117 pounds.

Accomplish, a son of Olympia and Plunder, who defeated 23 rivals in the Hialeah Juvenile Stakes on February 26, will make his local seasonal debut in the Youthful and he is to be handled by Eddie Arcaro. Prior to his victory in the Juvenile, Accomplish graduated from the maiden ranks at Hialeah with a six-length margin over B. A. Dario's Verdi last February 6. The Edwards colt completed his winning trip in :33⅗ for the 3 furlongs and scored his stakes success in :33⅕.

Raced 5 Furlongs in :59 in Slop

Royal Anthem, the get of Spy Song and Mad Bunny, made his first appearance under silks here last week, skipping five-eighths mile through sloppy footing in :59, best time for the distance at the current meeting. Royal Anthem might have bettered his mark had he been under any pressure in the race for he quickly established a long lead and went under the wire four and one-half lengths before his nearest rival, Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's Crafty Sailor.

The fact that Royal Anthem handled the wet course and the manner in which he achieved his initial success probably will earn him favoritism in this edition of the Youthful. The Webster colt is to be ridden by Eric Guerin, who will be in quest of his fourth triumph in the stakes, having handled Nearway in 1947, Native Dancer in '52, and Summer Tan, the 1954 victor.

Nimmer, third in his initial outing here March 31 and unplaced in an overnight dash April 9, will be guided by Ted Atkinson while Manahplay is to be piloted by capable Frank Lovato.

Atkinson has a splendid record in the Youthful. The crack Canadian-born race rider has ridden four prior winners of the fixture, Jeep in 1944, Twenty-Six in '45, Eternal World in '48, and Wheatley Stable's champion, Bold Ruler, in the 1956 running.

The Hampton Purse at 6 furlongs for fillies and mares, three-years-old and up, is the chief supporting offering on the Wednesday program. Nine shifty performers are entered in the sprint and Best of Show, Charming Hildy, and Shy Dancer are expected to draw the major share of support over such company as Carlyn Sarah, Good as Gold, Browse Awhile, Belchise, Comet Wine, and Pollyaire.

Plion Slated for Preakness

PIMLICO, Baltimore, Md., May 6.—Trainer Tom Jolley said today upon his arrival at Pimlico from Louisville that Edward J. Potter Jr.'s Plion, winner of the recent Blue Grass Stakes and the 1957 Sapling Stakes, will make his next start in Saturday's Delaware Valley Stakes at Garden State Park. 2he Greek Ship colt, vanned here today following a 24-hour van trip from Kentucky, will be returned to Pimlico for his engagement in the 82nd running of the $100,000 added Preakness Stakes on Saturday, May 17.

Mrs. William T. Favorite, known to hundreds of Detroit race fans as the "oldest regular patron of the sport," is shown admiring a portrait painted in her box as the field parades to the post at Hazel Park. The painting was a present from her son, William P. Favorite and his wife, and the artist Robert A. Thom and his wife, on Mrs. Favorite's 85th birthday recently. Hazel Park officials presented Mrs. Favorite with a lifetime pass to the track in appreciation of "your long and faithful devotion to the sport of kings."

Attendance, Mutuel Gains at Laurel

$1,053,320 Daily Average Handle

Per Diem Turnstile Count Of 12,526; Bishop, Bond, Grant, Oligarchy Leaders

(By Staff Correspondent)

The 29-day Laurel meeting, March 31 to May 3, saw an increase in both attendance and mutuel handle, statistics released today by DAILY RACING FORM reveal. The per diem turnstile count was 12,526, an increase of 406 per day over 1957, while the daily average mutuel play was $1,053,320, up $2,514 from the $1,050,806 figure for last spring.

The biggest day of the session from an attendance standpoint was April 26, when 21,928 fans attended and wagered $1,676,313. The top mutuel play took place April 19, when $1,697,464 went through the machines. The attendance on the latter date was 21,392.

Laurel's all-time attendance record is 33,615, set on Washington, D. C., International day in 1956. Its best mutuel play was recorded on March 17, 1954, when $1,982,520 was wagered.

New Daily Double Pool Record

A new Daily Double mutuel pool record of $194,244 was set on April 26, this bettering the $188,888 of the previous Saturday. Both figures represent new all-time Maryland highs.

One of the highest Daily Double returns in the history of the track came on May 2, when the combination of Red Arrow and Tax Cut paid $3,065.80 for $2. Red Arrow paid $145.00 straight, and Tax Cut, $22.80. Laurel's top Dialy Double payoff took place October 13, 1949, when the combination of Devotedly and Diana Lee paid $3,527.80.

There were six stakes run at the meeting, with the $28,725 Laurel Handicap the main event. This race was won by Brookmeade Stable's Oligarchy, who nosed out Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Paper Tiger to take down the winner's purse of $19,650. As a result, Oligarchy was the leading money-winning horse of the meeting with the Laurel purse as his total earnings for the meeting.

A. J. Bullock's Mickey Boy, winner of three events, including the Maryland Derby, ranked second with $18,275. Backbone, who won the Chesapeake in the Boncrist Farm silks, was third with $16,800. Sharpsburg, victor in the Capitol Handicap and one other race, was next with $11,900, while Trico, from the William Hal Bishop stable and a three-time winner at the meet, followed with $11,400.

Derby for Homebreds Carded

Run for the first time this spring was the Maryland Derby, restricted to Maryland-foaled three-year-olds and which was decided Saturday, the same day on which the Kentucky Derby was renewed at Churchill Downs.

Bishop made a runaway for leading money-winning owners' honors, his stable earning $81,955, almost three times as much as his closest rival, Roy E. Faircloth, whose horses won $28,475. Bishop's Pemberton won the Chesapeake Trial and his Bernburgoo the Laurel Spring Turf Handicap. The Bishop unit, in all, won 16 races, had 18 second and 12 thirds. Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade Stable was third with $19,650.

Howard Grant was the top rider with 42 winners. As he accepted 134 mounts, he had 31 per cent winners. Grant also was the leader at the 1957 spring session with 27 tallies to 25 for Joe Culmone. Clarence Meaux, who rode the winners of the Maryland Derby and Laurel Spring Turf Handicap on the closing-day card, was second with 23 victories, followed by Culmone with 17.

Grant rode four winners out of eight mounts on April 16, while Meaux had four winners and only six mounts on May 1.

Bernard P. Bond repeated as leading trainer with 17 wins to 16 for Bishop. He headed the list in 1957 with 15 tallies. W. A. Croll Jr. was third with eight.

Seven Named to Contest Springfield at Cahokia

Pearl Corral, Mr. Hendricks Top Field for Sprint Feature

By A. L. SHIELDS

CAHOKIA DOWNS, East St. Louis, Ill., May 6.—The rains of the week end have had no appreciable effect on the number of runners entered to race here Wednesday night. Of the nine races scheduled six have drawn capacity fields. The most interesting event, named the Springfield Purse, for three-year-olds and older, is carded as the sixth and has attracted a field of seven to contest the 6½ furlongs under allowance conditions.

James M. Burns' Pearl Corral heads the field in the stellar attraction which is rounded out by G. E. Geier's Mr. Hendricks; Carroll P. Poland's coupling of Silly Sis and She's A Bang; Vernon Herman's G. Lad; Mattingly and Hardick's Pillway and V. F. Crowder's Tribal Custom.

Pearl Corral was third to Egyptian Queen in Saturday night's Belleville Handicap, an effort in which the Fleeting Star filly showed a dislike for the muddy racing strip as she finished 11½ lengths behind the winner. The local weatherman holds out the promise for clear skies at least until the coming week end which should enhance Pearl Corral's chances Wednesday evening.

Mr. Hendricks scored twice at Detroit last year and was fourth in his first outing at the local course last week and probably needed that effort. The four-year-old Colonel O'F—Bright Harvest colt will be handled by J. R. Vinson.

Silly Sis and her running mate She's A Bang are capable of furnishing serious contention. Both were winners at the recent Sunshine Park meeting, scoring five times between them at that point. G. Lad has had two outings here, was outrun in the Inaugural Handicap opening-night but was third to Little Nemo and Nature Trail last Saturday night in the mud and shows signs of improvement.

The racing strip at the present writing is muddy but with the prevailing clear and sunny weather plus the constant attention track superintendent Claude Wiseheart and his crew are giving it, the track might be no worse than good for Wednesday's activities.

McCann Solicits Churchill Horsemen for Beulah Park

CHURCHILL DOWNS, Louisville, May 6.—Eddie McCann, assistant to Waterford Park general manager Horace Wade, arrived on the local scene today on a goodwill mission for that West Virginia oval. He came from Beulah Park. McCann will contact local horsemen during his two-day visit and distribute stall applications, stake blanks and condition books for the Waterford Park 48-day season which opens June 4.

McCann reports considerable work has been done in the stable area with barns being repainted, roads resurfaced and drainage facilities installed.

Twenty major events are to be considered during the summer meeting with the top offering being the $10,000 Independence Day Handicap at 1⅛ miles. Included in the handicap program are many events over Waterford's infield grass course.

Louisville Handicap Honors to Dogoon

Drake Sprinter Assigned 121 for Stake; Ezgo Next With 119, Shan Pac, 117

By BUD LYON

CHURCHILL DOWNS, Louisville, Ky., May 6.—E. Gay Drake's Dogoon, which made his seasonal bow here last week in the Churchill Downs Handicap at 7 furlongs as the highweighted at 122 pounds, has again been honored by Al Lavin, Churchill's racing secretary-handicapper, with top weight of 121 pounds for Saturday's twentieth running of the $10,000 added Louisville Handicap at 1 1-16 miles. Rated close behind this fleet-footed full brother to Swoon's Son at 119 pounds is Larry Thompson's Ezgo, who will be asked to concede but two pounds to T. Alie Grissom's Shan Pac for this middle-distance test.

Paul Butler's Clermont follows at 116, while grouped at 114 pounds are Emil Denemark Jr.'s Racetracker and My Night Out from the Estate of D. H. Wells. Hasty House Farm's Innishowen and T. A. Grissom's Rockport complete the group weighted within 10 pounds of the highweight. This pair is rated equally at 112 pounds.

Set New Track Record

Dogoon was particularly impressive in his bow as the A. G. "Lex" Wilson-trained campaigner cut out all the early fractions in the Churchil Downs 'Cap, ultimately allowing the winner, Shan Pac, to go on and clip an astounding three-fifths of a second from the course record, reaching the end in 1:22. All observers felt that this six-year-old son of The Doge—Swoon needed that race rather badly as he went gamely to the sixteenth pole before suddenly succumbing to the belated bids of Shan Pac and Ezgo. He stepped his initial quarter mile in :23, half mile in :45⅘, and the 6 furlongs in 1:10, while under 122 pounds.

Weight allotments for Saturday's longer run will be shifted slightly as the highweight will drop a pound, while Shan Pac will be forced to pick up two, and Ezgo, one. The changes are minor but possibly conclusive as Shan Pac enjoyed a head advantage over Ezgo in his record-breaking run, while Dogocn was another two and one-half lengths away.

Louisville Handicap weights follow:

Horse.	Wt.	Horse.	Wt.
Dogoon	121	Cardinal Sin	108

Sixteen Sprinters Nominated For Hollywood Premiere 'Cap

HOLLYWOOD PARK, Inglewood, Calif., May 6.—Sixteen swift sprinters, including the track record holder, How Now, have been named for the $20,000-added six-furlong Hollywood Premiere Handicap which will highlight the opening day program Thursday at Hollywood Park.

Racing secretary John Maluvius announced the list of nominees yesterday and the roster included such sterling performers as Llangollen Farm's Porterhouse, Poltex Stable and Roland Bond's Terrang and Frank Rand Jr.'s St. Amour II. It is doubtful, however, if any of the three will go postward.

On the other hand, How Now appears to be a certain starter. The quick-starting son of Beau Max established a Hollywood Park three-quarters record of 1:08⅗ last summer.

Three other speeders who are likely to contest the first of Hollywood's 33 added money events are Frates and France's Gold Cover, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Robineau's Vino Supremo and King Ranch's Golden Notes.

Nominations for the $20,000-added Hollywood Premier follow:

Blen Host	Porterhouse
Cardiff	Prince Khaled
Caronat	Swirling Abbey
Gold Cover	St. Amour II.
Golden Notes	Seaneen
How Now	Terrang
Legal Crisis	The Searcher
Marcador	Vino Supremo

My Scarleg Wins Beulah Opener Over Sloppy Oval

Triggers $74.60 Daily Double As Cosmos Takes Second Race

ter colt had tried 13 times this year. As second choice to Wise Count, who was fractious going postward and in the starting gate, My Scarleg returned $11.00. The time for the 6 furlongs in the sloppy going was 1:19.

C. Clifton's Cosmos and the veteran saddlesmith Arthur Craig won the second affair. It was the first start of the year for the seven-year-old Cosmic Bomb gelding and on this rainy afternoon he was easily the best of Mary Semler's Proud Ruby and apprentice Eugene Ennis while completing the $74.60 Daily Double, a 7-8 sequence.

Wood Lily, owned by J. Greathouse and trained by T. H. Stevens, found the winner's circle after the third race. He gained a head verdict over G. R. White's Mandagal. It was the third start of the year for the juvenile daughter of Count Speed—Duchess Anita.

H. Rutter's Jack Jay showed his preference for the sloppy going and was a length the best of J. L. Sadler's Witching in the fourth race. Another veteran of the saddle, Miles "Mike" Murphy, piloted the aged Lookout Boss gelding and was clocked six furlongs in 1:16⅗. A $2 win ticket was worth $7.20.

Mrs. Eisenhower Wires Regrets

CHURCHILL DOWNS, Louisville, Ky., May 6.—Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, wife of the President, was among those to wire Mrs. Elizabeth Graham after the running of the Kentucky Derby, expressing regrets that Mrs. Graham's Jewel's Reward failed to win the race.

coasted into the final furlong with a three-length advantage. However, at this time, Gunman had suddenly come to life and was closing steadily the nearly five lengths that separated him from the leader. This belated move forced Heckmann to commence scrubbing on his mount and this situation found the two getting under the line of finish with something to spare.

The opening events provided the shortest Daily Double payoff of the young season with W. J. Sprow Jr.'s Jimmy Doyle, winner of the opener, and Olen Sledge's Teamic, winner of the second, providing their followers with a $16.80 return.

Jimmy Doyle, currently enjoying a perfect record for this meeting in winning two for two, came from just off the early pace under the handling of Larry Grubb to eke out a head decision at the expense of Stanley and Milton Rieser's Mary's Boy. It was another half length back to William H. Veeneman's Mon's Wings.

The winner required 1:15 to cover the 6 furlongs in the "muddy" going and, as the choice, returned $6.40.

Teamie emulated her predecessor in many ways as she not only came from off the pace under Larry Hansman, but also was driven out to earn a half-length decision while covering the 6 furlongs in the identical time of the opening winner. The Sledge colorbearer was also the favorite, but heavily backed by the chilled fans as she was odds-on in the wagering, returning $3.80. Runner-up honors here fell to Mrs. Nick Burger and Mrs. R. S. Byrum's Doctor Hi, which finished nearly four lengths before C. C. Koetes' Donny's Task.

Larry Grubb notched his second winner with C. W. Hayes' Ann Rutledge in the fourth, a 6-furlong event for $4,000 three-year-olds, while driving the filly to a hard-earned, three-quarter length decision over C. C. Burke's J. J. Flanigan. Show honors fell to Gentilly Stable's Inquiry. This Casemate filly made up a spot of ground, but still fell three and one-half lengths shy of the runner-up.

The favorite, Pickalenny, set all the pace to just inside the eighth pole, where she suddenly folded up to finish seventh, only being ahead of Leon Tikulski's Greer, which bolted to the outer rail before completing the initial quarter mile.

Some Classic's Closing Rush Brings Victory

Fieselman Rides Fein Colt for Third Win on Sportsman's Card

well backed choice, won the sixth event. With jockey Jack Fieselman riding his second winner of the afternoon, Ali O-K came from second place to catch the pacemaking Boul Mich and win going away by one and one-half lengths. Boul Mich easily saved second place from Equipat. The distance was one mile and Ali O-K's time was but three-fifths second off the track record. The winner paid $4.80.

Despite the fact that Proud Way, the favorite, won the first race, the Daily Double paid $120.40 when Seppie took the second. Proud Way, with Willie Collier up, raced like a wild horse through the last quarter, coming from the rear in the middle of the track to score by six lengths. Seppie, with Jerrold Casey up, found an opening in the stretch to hold the fast closing Stansway. Morse Flash, the public choice, was badly outrun all the way.

Mr. Rip, who took the fifth event, was the second favorite of the day to win. With Tony Ferraiuolo doing the riding, Mr. Rip came from fifth place in the 6-furlong race to score by well over two lengths from Commodier.

Jockey Jack Fieselman, piloted the long-priced Will Omit to triumph in the 6½ furlong third that was for three-year-old maidens. Will Omit, who was making his first start of 1958 and had not been in the money in seven outings last year, scored over Double Lorrain, another outsider, with the well played Judge N. H. third.

Black Despot, who had not gained any portion of a purse in 11 previous starts this year, came down the rail in the stretch to take the fourth race. Black Despot was vanned over from Washington Park for his engagement and raced for Mrs. Nick Moran. The distance was 6½ furlongs, and Top Guy, the most fancied one, got second money.

Winner—Ch. g, by Stymie—Grand Flame, by Grand Time, trained by J. F. Curtis; bred by Brookmeade Stable.
IN GATE—5:33. OFF AT 5:33 EASTERN DAYLIGHT TIME.
Start good. Won easily. MY FLAME sprinted into command quickly on the outside, widened his margin steadily thereafter to win with speed in reserve. GALWAY BOY, a keen factor from the beginning, raced FAWARLESS into defeat but was no match for the winner. CHORUS BOY, outrun early, came with a belated rush in the final furlong but was outdistanced by the top pair. FAWARLESS forced the pace for six furlongs, then weakened from his early efforts. RUNNING GIRL overtook tired horses near the end. DUKE O' DIXIE showed nothing. BURNING FLAME was through early. LADY CUANTA turned in a dull effort and had no apparent excuse.
Scratched—47764 Barley C., 111.
Overweight—Chorus Boy, 3 pounds; Fawarless, 1; Burning Flame, 5.

Attendance, 3,263; Total Mutuel Pool, $151,825.
